Re: Your correspondence received in the U.S. District Clerk's Office on 4/18/2016
Case No./Style: 3:14-cr-00367-B, USA v. Pass et al

The clerk's office is unable to provide the requested discovery pack due the requested item not being on file with the clerk's office. A copy of your docket sheet has been enclosed. If you later discover which item you are seeking, please contact us with the document number and title.

Copies of docket sheet and/or documents require prepayment of the copy expense, currently $0.50 per page. Certification of copies is an additional $11.00 per document. (Note: The court may direct the clerk to provide copies without cost to an indigent defendant proceeding pro se in a criminal case. However, the granting of in forma pauperis status under 28 U.S.C. § 1915 in a civil case does not entitle a litigant to free copies or services.)

Sincerely,

Deputy Clerk - A. Lowe
